1. The limited responsibility company ENNERI & CO., with head offices at 12 Via Scutari, Venice and a branch office at 21 Via Genova, Trieste, was constituted in the latter city in 1946 on the initiative of Corrado ENNERI, son of Corrado (deceased), born in Pola on 2 February 1900, domiciled and resident at Grignano (Free Territory of Trieste) No. 254, Pharmacist, in conjunction with the Austrian subject Emilio Massimiliano FELIX, son of Francesco (deceased), born in Budapest on 10 November 1899, domiciled in Venice.
2. The company handles the export and import of various merchandise, wholesale traffic in clearing, commission and representation of chemical and pharmaceutical products. So far, the Trieste branch has dealt primarily in lumber, cellulose and paper with Sweden, Denmark and Finland, and in 1951 exported to Austria 1000 quintals of refined block sulphur.
3. The director of the Trieste branch, who is also co-owner member of the firm, is identified as Enrico RAJAKOWITSCH (alias RAJA), son of Giovanni (deceased) and of Maria de Cartel, born 23 November 1905 in Trieste, there domiciled at 15 Via Genova, Austrian citizen. He lived in his native city until 1915, when he moved to Austria with his parents. He returned to Trieste on 8 August 1946 with his wife Anna Maria RINTELEN, and his children Klans Antonio aged 17 and Antje Maria, aged 8 years, with whom he is still living.
4. He is in possession of sojourn permit No. 12356 issued to him by the FTT Civil Police, as well as an Italian Passport, No. 3490531 R. 14480, issued on 9 June 1951 by the Corizia Questura, in the name of Enrico RAJA.
5. So far RAJAKOWITSCH has given rise to no political suspicions; in the business world he is known as a man of few scruples who is capable of going into any activity if it is worth his while. He is being watched by competent FTT organs.
